Genealogy Stocks Jordan Dairy Farm

Genealogy has done many things to many people, but have you ever heard of it being responsible for getting a modern dairy for an orphans' home in faraway Jordan?

It had its genesis in 1947 when Mousa Alami, a Palestinian, decided to abandon his legal profession to devote his time to making a home for hundreds of orphans in his neighborhood. After increasing his scant acreage to 2,000 acres and erecting not too model homes for his charges, Alami began to look around for nourishing food for his hungry, growing orphans.

To raise the needed money with which to establish a dairy on the Palestinian farm, Alami came to the United States a couple of years ago. While visiting dairy farms in different parts of the United States, he ran across Norman Burns, director of Point Four in Jordan. Burns listened to Alami's dreams, and while listening he got some ideas.

For some time prior to this, Mr. Burns had become interested in his ancestry and had started collecting his genealogy. He rememberd that a distant cousin of his Louis B. Bigler, was quite a prominent dairyman living in West Jordan, Utah, just a few miles south of Salt Lake City. As

Pittmans Have Much Early Family Data

By Cmdr. W. E. Pittman
511 Denver Road
Bartlesville, Oklahoma

A considerable amount of information is available on Pittmans in America during colonial times. Until about 1800 it was generally spelled Pitman. Hotten's "Persons" notes the death of Christopher Pitman in 1622 in Virginia. John Pitman made a will in St. Mary's White Chapel, Lancaster County, Virginia, in 1702 (Lancaster Will Book 8, 1690-1709) and the will of his wife, Elizabeth was probated in 1710 (Lancaster Wills, etc., 1709-1727) Both named children Thomas, William, John and Ann.

Surry and Isle of Wight County records contain many references to Captain Thomas Pitman (about 1615-1690) and his son Thomas Pitman, Jr., The descendants of Thomas Pitman, Jr., (1655-1730) through his sons Ambrose, Samuel, Thomas, Robert, John, Joseph and Arthur, all of whom moved from Isle of Wight County, Virginia, to Edgecombe and Halifax Counties, North Carolina about 1739, have compiled a family history. This record shows that Thomas Pitman Jr. married Mary Holloman in 1706 and Elizabeth

Family Organizations To Be Listed

In response to numerous suggestions, THE GENEALOGICAL HELPER in March 1956 inaugurated a new service in behalf of family organizations. A list of existing family organizations in the United States and their officers were printed for the first time in that issue. The fact that it served a real purpose is evident in the response from all sections of the nation. The response has increased with the publication of that list each year since then.

In the interval new family organizations by the thousands have sprung up all over America. That stands to reason since no "movement", "fashion", or "zeal" has swept not only our nation but every progressive nation in the world, as has the art or the science of genealogy. Everybody seems imbued with a pressing or urgent desire to know something about his ancestors. Since a majority of those actually doing the search are women, perhaps the last two words in the preceding sentence should have read, "her ancestors."

After an individual has been "immersed" in the movement, he or she begins to wonder if there could be others with a similar surname in the far-flung parts of America. Once two or three such researchers have communicated with each other a few times, it isn't long until another family organization bearing their particular surname is in business. It is decidedly to the interest of all familes to associate themselves with their particular family organization, as a united effort brings more and better results than a feeble individual labor.

In registering, the name of the family organization and its genealogists' name and address should be given. For this service the small fee of 50 cents is charged. Should other names be included, like the president, the vice president and the secretary, etc., the cost for each additional name and address is 25 cents.

The information for the listing of family associations and their leaders should be in by February 1, 1962. A registration blank on which this information may be sent in on will be found on pages 249 and 250 of this issue of THE GENEALOGICAL HELPER.

Correspondence Handbook To Be Published

A HANDBOOK FOR GENEALOGICAL CORRESPONDENCE will be published by the Cache Genealogical Library, Logan, Utah, early in 1962. This handbook is being compiled by a special committee chairmanned by Dr. John F. Vallentine to assist genealogists in writing effective genealogical letters. It is well known that unsatisfactory and unacceptable genealogical letters seal up many record sources to the correspondent. Since a majority of the facts, evidence, and clues used in compiling family genealogies come from correspondence, such a manual should prove of widespread use. Special attention will be given to helping family genealogists in locating and contacting record sources.

The handbook will include 12 chapters including opportunities in genealogical correspondence; essentials of a genealogical letter; writing to relatives; writing to libraries, public archives, and historical societies; writing to public officials; the postmaster and the mails; writing to church record keepers, societies, and archives; geography in genealogical correspondence; surname searching; advertising in newspapers and genealogical magazines; seeking specialized help; and filing genealogical correspondence.

The manual will be 6" by 9" in size, will include approximately 125 pages, and will be bound in a hard-back cover. Tabular material, examples, and a great many references to additional printed works of utmost value to the genealogical correspondent will be included. It will be sold by the Cache Genealogical Library and through selected retail outlets. Check subsequent issues of the Genealogical Helper for announcements of release date and price.

Mr. L. Ray Robinson, president of the Cache Genealogical Library, reports the compiling of this handbook for publication is one of the many services made available to the general public through this library.

More about Pittmans

Lancaster prior to 1720 and lists 15 children.

"Americans of Gentle Birth and Their Ancestors" by Mrs. H. D. Pittman and Harper's "Colonial Men and Times" have some information on Williamson Pittman, who married Judith Watkins, and his descendants through his sons Asa and Williamson. This Williamson Pittman, Sr., was the son of Thomas Pittman and Hannah Fielding. The William and Mary College Quarterly Historical Magazine, Vol 18 (1909-1910) says that Thomas Pittman married Hannah Fielding prior to 1750 and had Richard, Ambrose and Williamson and probably other children, that Richard and Williamson moved to Kentucky and that Williamson is the father of Asa and Williamson, which agrees with "Americans of Gentle Birth", and Ambrose married Mary Streator and moved to Edgecombe County, North Carolina and had children, Elisha, Elijah, Arthur and John.

These records reveal a possibility of a connection between the descendents of Richard and Willaimson Pittman in Kentucky and the descendents of Ambrose and his brothers in North Carolina, through Thomas Pittman, Jr., of Isle of Wight County, Virginia. There are some descrepencies between the North Carolina Pittman Family History on one hand and "Americans of Gentle Birth" and the William and Mary Quarterly on the other hand. (1) The North Carolina Family History lists the sons of Thomas Pittman, except William and Samson as moving to North Carolina. This list does not include a Williamson Pittman. (2) The North Carolina record does not include a Richard Pittman. (3) The North Carolina records show that Ambrose Pitman married Annie Streeter instead of Mary Streator. All sources show the same name for the children tho the North Carolina records name more children than the others. There is one other possibility from the North Carolina record that does not seem likely. Thomas Pitman, the son of Thomas Pitman Jr., married Ann (?) and he left a will probated 4 April 1754 in Edgecombe County, North Carolina, that mentioned sons, Lot Pittman and Thomas Pittman and six other sons and two daughters without giving their names.

The Pittman Family Association in Georgia has compiled a list of many of the descendents of John Pitman who was born 3 October 1726, probably in Amelia County, Virginia, married Mary (Polly) Rowe in 1747 and lived in Buckingham County, Virginia. About 1765 he moved to Edgefield District, South Carolina, and prior to 1770 he moved to St. Pauls Parish, later Richmond County, Georgia, with his children Lucy, John, Mary, James, Martha, Zilpha, Sarah, Phillip, Timothy and Grace. Some of these children were born after John Pitman left Virginia. His oldest son, Buckner, probably married in Virginia. It is believed that his wife died leaving an infant son, Jesse, who was reared by his grandfather, John Pitman. Some time prior to 1797 Buckner Pitman went to Natchez (Adams County), Mississippi where he is believed to have married and had several children.

Will those interested kindly communicate and forward information they may have.

Genealogical Book Co. Moves

The Genealogical Book Company of Baltimore has just announced that it has moved into larger quarters. This move was necessitated by the greatly increased scope of its operation since its change-over to the present firm name from the former Southern Book Company. Their new address is 521-23 St. Paul Place, Baltimore 2, Maryland.

As the name inplies, this firm specializes in books on genealogy including family history, local history and records, and other volumes with genealogical content. Besides issuing frequent catalogues listing old rare books in this field, the firm is also making a specialty of reprinting rare basic genealogical reference books, of which it issues frequent announcements.

According to Jules Chodak, president, the company is at present engaged in importing a great number of British genealogical books in response to the greatly increased demand for records from this area. It has just been appointed exclusive distributor in the United States and Canada for the forthcoming reprint of "Burke's General Armory", a work of great magnitude and authority which has been constantly used as a basic reference tool by those seeking information on their family crests.

Shortly forthcoming will be the rather ambitious reprinting of the 34 volumes of "Virginia Colonial Abstracts", compiled by the late Beverly Fleet some twenty years ago. When originally published the set was limited to only 100 copies, with the result that these volumes are now classified as being in the rare book field. It has also announced that it is reprinting J. Estelle Stewart King's "Abstract of Early Kentucky Wills and Inventories".

Three reprints recently published are; "Early Virginia Immigrants, 1623 -1666 by George Cabell Greer; "The Winthrop Fleet of 1630", and "The Planters of the Commonwealth 1620-1640" by Charles Edward Banks.

"Early Virginia Immigrants" records much information all arranged alphabetically which can be obtained only by extensive research in the Land Office at Richmond. Twenty-five thousand names have been collected from original records making possible the locating of many connections to the first settlers of this early colony.

Charles Edward Banks has been one of the greatest compilers of genealogical material. In "The Winthrop Fleet" he has an alphabetical arrangement of all those who are believed to have come to New England with Winthrop on the bases of evidence obtained and cited in each individual case. As much information as possible was obtained on each passenger including place of departure, place or places of residence in America, Occupation, Church membership, all known dates of birth, marriage and death, citations where the names appears in local records, relationship to other passengers, etc. Three separate indexes as well as maps and the list of passengers of the Mary and John, 1630 and Ship Lyon, 1630 make it a must for New England researchers.

In "The Planters of the Commonwealth" Mr. Banks makes a study of the emigrants and emigration in Colonial times to which he has added lists of passengers to Boston and the Bay Colony; The ships which brought them; their English homes and places of their settlement in Mass., 1620-1640. The names of passengers on the 96 ships which brought them to America from the time of the arrival of the May Flower in 1620 to 1640 are given, also all known names of passengers, the name of the ship on which they sailed, the name of the Captain, and where known, the English origin and place of settlement in America. Approximately 1,250 surnames are included in the index. In addition there is an index to ships and an index to place names which includes English Parishes and New England towns.

More information on these reprints may be obtained from The Genealogical Book Company, 521-23 St. Paul Place, Baltimore 2, Maryland.

Marriage Records Copied

Through the efforts of County Clerk Floyd Mitchell and his deputies, Mrs. E. E. Baxter, Misses Lydia Simmons and Ann Rogers, all marriage records of Mc Lennan County, Texas, have been copied and turned over to the officers of The Central Texas Genealogical Society, Waco, Texas. They have now prepared the new list and a two-way index for publication.

McLennan County of which Waco is the county seat came into being in 1850. Before that it was an Indian village with but a few hundred white people. Brath, White Rock and Waco were about the only communities in the county. In 1858 it was connected with Houston by a stage coach. Ten years after its establishment the county had six thousand inhabitants which had more than doubled in another ten years. Shipborne immigrants landing at Houston and Galveston came in huge droves for many years after those cities were connected with Waco by railroad lines.

From September 1850 to the following New Year four marriage licences were issued. Twelve couples were married in 1851, seventeen in 1852, fourteen in 1853, seventeen in 1854, thirty in 1855, and thirtysix in 1856.

Genealogist Asks Mr. or Mrs?

Recently in answering a letter from an archivist by the name of Vivian Bongenhielm in a European city, we were completely baffled. Should the salutation be "Dear Sir" or "Dear Madam"? Should the envelope be addressed to "Herr", "Fröken" or "Fru" Vivian Bongenheilm?

After a heated, silent argument and writing a P. S. at the bottom of the letter - In America Vivian is a male as well as a female name. What is it in this case? - we compromised or "de-gendered" the situation by using no salutation and addressing the envelope "Vivian Bongenhielm" plus the street and the city address.

Still more recently our funny-bone was tickled to see somebody else perplexed about scores of similar situations. The following letter from Donald E. Warner, 258-A Prospect Street, Watsonville, Calif., explains matters and suggests or prays for a much-needed remedy:

"I was interested in the 'Directory of Genealogical Societies, Libraries and Professional Genealogists' in your June issue. The way my particular research is progressing, it may not be long before I may need the services of a professional genealogist. I am rather timid to call a person by his or her first name or addressing him or her otherwise than by his correct title, such as Mrs., Miss or even Mr. What do you do when these "professional genealogists" neglect to state their status or give their titles in the advertisements they place in genealogical publications?

"I'm sure that trouble was unheard of when parents gave their children appropriate masculine and feminine names. These days it is difficult for one to know whether he is writing to a woman or a man - all because names are used unappropriately.

Genealogical Society Of Utah Reorganized

The Genealogical Society of the Church Of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints recently changed officers. Junius M. Jackson was named President, with Lamont B. Gundersen first Counselor and George H. Fudge as second Counselor. Paul F. Royall is the new Secretary and Roy Brown Treasurer. The new board of directors has G. Eugene England, Howard S. Bennion, Lorin N. Pace, Zelph Y. Erekson as members.

Many new innovations are anticipated and planned including a new building to house their library and the many offices connected with their services.

They will continue their extensive microfilm program of copying original records in most of the States and European Countries.

New electronic equipment is being installed to facilitate handling and processing records which are sent to them from around the world.

Little change will be made so far as public relations are concerned. They will continue to serve the general public - members of their church and non-members - doing research in the records they have in their voluminous files. They are, however, still far behind on some of their research requests because of lack of space in which to work. The new building, which is anticipated in about two years, will alleviate much of this problem.

The former officers were Joseph Fielding Smith, President, Mark L. Peterson, Vice President and Archibald F. Bennett, Secretary.

Early Pennsylvania History Indexed

Things are going to be easier and better for genealogical researchers, at least for those whose earliest American ancestors came from Germany and lived in Lebanon Township which from 1729 to 1785 was part of Lancaster county. In 1785 a new county was created from that particular section and became known as Dauphin until 1813, since which time it has been Lebanon County. Many thousand Germans have lived there and reared large families, descendants of which now live in all parts of the country. But their roots are still in Pennsylvania.

Way back in 1883 a man by the name of Egle wrote HISTORY OF DAUPHIN & LEBANON COUNTY in which is a profusion of names of the early settlers of that section. But it was not indexed. Only careful reading would reveal the name or names in which the reader was interested.

The index contains 220 pages of names, spelled in the early German way as well as in the American style.

Individuals or libraries having a copy of Egle's HISTORY OF DAUPHIN & LEBANON COUNTY will find its value tremendously increased with the accession of its recently published index, which may be obtained by ordering it from THE LEBANON COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY, c/o Ray S. Bowman, Sixth & Walnut Streets, Lebanon, Pennsylvania.

Prospective buyers should remember that it is only the Lebanon section of the original history that is indexed.

More About Dairy Farm

his locality name indicates his dairy farm is west of Utah's Jordan River which connects Utah's "Sea of Galilee", Utah Lake, with its "Dead Sea", the Great Salt Lake. Mr. Burns suggested to Alami to contact Mr. Bigler if his travels took him to that section of the United States.

When Alami reached Utah and expounded his ideas and desires he had an eager and sympathetic listener in Mr. Bigler. Together the two men went to visit President David O. McKay of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, who was so impressed with the story that he arranged for the Brigham Young University in Provo, Utah, a Church-owned and operated institution, to donate $17,500 to the project and to assign its director of animal husbandry, Seymour Mikkelsen, to supervise for two years the dairy project on Alami's orphans' home in West Jordan, Jordan. To begin his assignment, Mr. Mikkelsen flew to Holland where he purchased a large herd of registered Holstein-Friesian cattle and escorted them to their new home in Jordan.

In the meantime Mr. Bigler had prevailed upon a large number of wholesale supply houses to furnish the needed modern equipment for a 100-head dairy in Jordan at less than half cost, and donate the freight charges.

All because a Point Four director in Jordan, in his genealogical research, had found a successful and big-hearted dairyman among his distant relatives!

We Retraced A Migration

Lois Tincher Dorsey
2266 West 5100 South
Roy, Utah

WE RETRACED A MIGRATION! From Kansas back to Indiana by station wagon... not covered wagon! But history we found this past summer.

In an uncared for cemetery, on an old farm, in an all but forgotten town, we found perfect headstones of my great grandparents. In 1829 they came to Indiana. John, Obadiah and George Tincher (my great grandfather) are held in grateful appreciation for the planning of this town. They donated land for a school, they voted in the 1848 general election, they raised large families, and George and Sarah (Grimes) Tincher, who died five months apart, are buried there.

In a veritable forest of weeds, nettles and bracken over our head, we hacked and forced our way into this final resting place. Many graves of early Indiana pioneers are there. Our own family headstones were in perfect condition. This on the old farm of my ancestors.

Why a vacation like none we've ever had? Simply a desire to write a history of a family, who, in its own right, has been neglected. In libraries across the country we find reference to them, but no complete history has been compiled on this early Virginia family.

Samuel Tencher-Tincher arrived in the early Ulster movement, and followed the trend of the times, debarking at Port of Philadelphia, in all probability, then migrating through Chester, Lancaster or Cumberland Counties, into the Valley of Shenandoah. Thus does the Kentucky Historical Society (Vol. 37) depict it. Samuel's wife, Margaret Campbell, and his three children (named in his Will of 1791) started my story with the birth of their children. The Court House in Lewisburg, West Virginia, gave me further insight and important data. This we visited during our summer's trek, while a walk over the ground of that early Point Pleasant battle field, a Sunrise over the Calfpasture Valley, a dusting of records in Richmond, Kentucky, and beating brush in this old cemetery in Springtown, Indiana, completed my story. These folks I now cherish; they have become a live part of my present day family.

But so much is still needed. The exact date of their entry into America and the number who came to these shores must be found. The oft told story of "three original brothers who came before the Revolution" must be verified; perhaps there were only two .. perhaps only one. Baptisms and early marriages are necessary. Exact battles, wherein they fought, and valiant company commanders deserve a place in my story. Indeed, no early pioneer family is complete without a word or two about how they defended their new homeland!

Since that early date (1750 we first find Samuel Tincher in the Calfpasture Valley), the Tinchers have become many. They entrenched themselves in the lands of West Virginia, as witness the purchase by

The Question Box

RULES AND RECOMMENDATIONS

Our readers are invited to submit their genealogical queries to be answered in this section. We will attempt to analyze the problems and to give the information needed to carry on research. We do not attempt to extend research for anyone, either for pay or otherwise.

Until further notice the following rules will apply to queries submitted for this department.

1. Each query must pertain to one person or one couple. Give all the information you can such as dates of birth, marriage, death, etc. Also give other facts or traditions such as place of birth, marriage, death; place and date of children's birth; religion, military service; occupation, etc., etc.
2. Each query must be typewritten on a separate sheet—never on a sheet with an order or other matter. This will facilitate handling and avoid their being overlooked. Please use double spacer on your typewriter.
3. All hand written queries will be typed and returned for proofing with a charge of ½ cent per word for this service. Handwritten meterial has caused considerable trouble in the past—with dates, names and places being misinterpreted.
4. The name and address of the querist must appear on each and every question submitted to the Question Box.
5. Queries of general interest on any genealogical subject will receive top priority. Others will be considered in the order in which they are received.
6. More than one question may be sent in by one person, but they may not be answered at the same time. If you send in more than one question and have a preference as to which is answered first, label them as to first, second and third choice, etc.
7. Queries which have been in our files more than six months and have not been answered or printed will be returned to the sender with the recommendation that they be resubmitted, rewritten, or that they be published as a paid advertisement. All queries resubmitted will be reinstated in their original order to be taken up as though they had not been returned. This should help us to avoid the waste of time and space, taking up queries answered through other sources, and yet be fair to all subscribers who desire our help.

It lists w Margaret, Ch: George, James, Jean Scott, Mary Mc Giboney, Joseph, John, Betsy, Elanor, Margaret, Hugh and David. Also recorded in that Co are m of James Newell to Polly Fleming 11 Jul 1811, Elizabeth (Betsy?) Newell to Edward Marquis 7 May 1817, Elanor Newell to James Adams 10 Oct 1815, and Hugh Newell to Sally Thrift 26 Dec 1826. James Newell and Elanor Newell were b Washington Co Pa.

In the DAR Lineage Books is a Hugh Newell b Ireland 1744, d Cross Creek, Washington Co Pa 1810 m Margaret Bentley (1759-1849). Their dau Elizabeth Newell (1792-1870) m Edward Marquis (1787-1860). Could this Elizabeth Newell be the Betsy Newell mentioned in the Will and could it be that Hugh Newell made his Will at Cross Creek in 1810 but didn't d until 1847 in Knox Co Ohio? He would have been 103 but it is poss.

In crspd with an active DAR desc of Hugh Newell she says fam trad is that Hugh Newell was b Scotland. She also suggests that Hugh Newell did d in 1810, but that his Will was only found and probated after his family moved to Ohio. Will crspd with anyone who might help solve this problem or has other info on Newell fam.

15-4-42 BOONE, KINCAID, JOPLING, NIXON, SMITH, SCHMIDT

Miss Alice H. Boone, 616 West Webster, Springfield, Mo., desires info on anc of John Boone 1789-1837 and w Isabelle Kincaid 1795-1843, both of Caldwell Co NC. Ch include my gf, Joel Nixon Boone 1824-1902, William (Billy), and Elijah, prob Sarah, and others. Joel and Billy m daus of Benjamin Jopling, namely, Mary Ann and Harriet, and moved in 1850's to Hickory Co Mo where they reared their familes. Benjamin Jopling had moved from Va to NC thence to Mo. I have an old Jopling deed of land transfers in Va and NC, dated 1809.

The Boone ch were orphaned when young, and were "bound our" as was custom in those days, thus they lost all their family records, but the fact that they were desc from a bro of the famous Daniel Boone, and that the family name was "John", had been indelibly imprinted in their memories. John Boone's mor's name was "Nixon", and we think that his gf was a brother of Daniel. The ch of Elijah Boone were John, Ada and Minnie, all of whom remained single, insofar as I know. There may have been other ch. They lived their entire lives in Morganton NC I think.

As to Isabelle Kincaid (w of John Boone), a letter received by Joel N Boone ca 1896, from one James Kincaid, stated that five Kincaid bros had come over from Scotland each having the title "Sir", and that one of these five brothers was the father of Isabelle.

The w of Benjamin Jopling was Dicey Smith, originally "Schmidt".

Lee Family Publishes History

After traveling more than 50,000 miles in 18 states over a period of 20 years visiting courthouses, state archives, churches and cemeteries, Mrs. Emma Lee Bettis, 500 Adams Ave., Apt. 10 Montgomery, Alabama, has completed a comprehensive history of the LEE FAMILY of VIRGINIA. The record begins with 1100 A.D. and continues to the present.

The history traces the Lee family from Col. Richard Lee (1) of Virginia and wife Anne Constable Lee from their son Charles (2) Lee, through Colonel Greenberry(5) Lee, his son John (6) and Susanna Edmonds (Short) Lee of Giles County, Tenn., including their descendants to the present day.

Female descendants of Col. Greenberry Lee, William Few, Sr., and Lt. Col. Thomas Short will be accepted for membership in the Daughters of the American Revolution by furnishing the proof found on page 19 of the Lee Family History.

THE RUSSELL FAMILY IN VIRGINIA

contains a photographic reprint of "William Russell and His Descendants" by Anna Russell des Cognets, first published in 1884. This rare book has always been accepted as the standard guide to the posterity of William and Mary (Henley) Russell of Culpeper Co., Va. An index has been added totaling about 2,000 names, with many other than Russell included. The second part was written by myself from source material that was unknown 75 years ago. Where destruction of Co. records made ordinary search impossible, recourse to circumstantial evidence became necessary. Other original methods will have value for genealogists in general. Cloth, 317 pages, $8.00 a copy, postage paid.

ENGLISH DUPLICATES OF LOST VIRGINIA RECORDS

copied from documents in the Public Record Office in London, contains much material not previously to be had in the U.S. The lists of land grants to early settlers, the rosters of militia officers, Co. officials, clergy, ship captains and owners totals over 8,000 names is indexed and forms a sort of Who's Who from 1700 to 1730; 380 pages, cloth, $8.00 a copy postage paid.

Louis des Cognets, Jr., P.O. Box 163, Princeton, New Jersey.

Many Families Publish Newsletters

Combined efforts on the part of numerous interested individuals, closely or distantly related, have given considerable success to many family genealogical associations. If half a dozen or more persons in the group have caught the spirit and enthusiasm of research activities, such organizations generally perform a distinct service to all concerned, eventually even to those who are slow in contributing a little financial assistance.

Many family organizations publish monthly or quarterly newsletters in which are published news of research activities, sketches of family members, and other items of interest to the family members. Among such organizations are the following:

THE RICHARD HAZELRIGG FAMILY ASSOCIATION OF AMERICA of which M. Earle Hazelrigg, 1703 Jackson, Lamar, Mo., is the president; Laura B. Boardman, Maple Springs Farm, R.R. 3, Greencastle, Indiana, the historian, and Milton A. Parsons, P.O. Box 1005, Coeur d'Alene, Idaho is the genealogists, and the editor and publisher of the newsletter. The nine pages of the June issue of the Family Letter filled with choice bits of information that should be of interest to all Hazelrigg descendants.

PARSONS FAMILY BULLETIN at present seems to represent any and all Parsons regardless of any relationship. The editor and publisher is Milton A. Parsons of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, mentioned in the previous paragraph. The May 1961 issue contains thirty-five pages of interesting family news. Names and addresses of twenty-two Parsons living in different parts of the nation are given. Extracts from many old wills are published.

THE BROWN FAMILY IN AMERICA sends out a monthly bulletin through the Earl R. Brown Genealogical Society, 604 East 12th St., Indianapolis 2, Indiana. They maintain a tremendous Brown file on their related lines.

THE KELSEY FAMILY NEWS BULLETIN published by KELSEY KINDRED OF AMERICA, an organization of the descendants of William Kelsey, Puritan immigrant of 1632. A four-page, 8 1/2 x 11, attractive folder. Twelve officers in the organization. Mrs William E. Griffin, 84 Howe St., New Haven, Conn., is president, honorary vice president, publicity chairman, and Bulletin editor.

BRALY HISTORICAL RESEARCH NEWSLETTER, monthly or bi-monthly. Genealogist, Lottie M. Braly, Box 461, Ada, Oklahoma. Need information on John (1) and Sarah Carruth Braly, John (2) and Mary Carson Braly, Hugh (3) and Nancy McCreary Braly, Benjamin (4) Franklin and Margaret Moses Braly, William (5) Foote and Mary Elizabeth Knotts Braly.

Connecticut Genealogist Offers Help

By Mrs. William H. LeGeyt
P. O. Box 173
East Harland, Conn.

Thanks to your wonderful magazine, "The Genealogical Helper", I've been able to contact some very helpful people who have made it possible for me to add facts to our family history.

From 1883 to 1885, a Miss Mary L. Hart of Barkhamsted, Connecticut, wrote a Series of 42 genealogical-local history articles about the following families who lived in Barkhamsted: Mack, Ford, Adams, Burwell, Hitchock, Rockwell, Squires, Ives, Slade, Allyn (Pelatiah, Henry, Matthew, John), Case (Humphrey), Parker, Shepard, Whiting, Bellamy, Rose, Eells, Gilbert, Case (Simeon), Beecher (Dr. Amos).

If any of your readers trace their ancestry to any of these families in Barkhamsted, I will be glad to correspond with them and forward any additional information from the articles for a stamped addressed envelope. It may take me a little time to look up or copy the requested material of household duties and the presence of a 3 year old in the household, but I will be glad to help descendants of the above families if I can.

Two of the articles about the Simeon Case family have already reappeared in "The Lure of the Litchfield Hills", a local historical magazine which often contains genealogical articles, and the remainder of the articles are slated for republication in consecutive issues of the "Lure".

I also have at home most of the issues of the "Lure" which contain the genealogy of the Barber family of Canton, Conn., and Vermont. Again I would be willing to correspond with anyone who might be looking for help with this family line -- stamped addressed envelope required.

Old Burial Ground Recorded

The Roseberry Burial ground is located near the extinct town of Brentsville, Prince William County, Virginia. Long abandoned, it is known only to small boys who go hunting in the woods. Many stones are overturned and covered by vegetation and humus. The following inscriptions were recorded last spring by A. Maxim Coppage, 417 Lynn Ave., Antioch, California, and Dr. John E. Manahan of Scottsville, Virginia:

BURROUGHS, Sara, wife of John died Nov. 18, 1788, aged 67; DRISCO, Willington S. died 1825, aged 5 months; WEEKS, B. G.; J.P. died 1825, H.P., H.W. died 6/25; LOVELACE, Vout? or Yout? died 1860.

They searched in vain for the gravestone of a Revolutionar Soldier who may have borne the name of TULLOS. According to an old man the stone was seen some miles from the cemetary when he was a young boy. The country in that section is reverted land and was cultivated before the War Between the States.

INDEX

This index is for Volume Fifteen of The Genealogical Helper -- March, June, September and December, 1961. The first figures indicate page numbers; the figure following the hyphen indicates the particular column on that page. Thus Blaylock 8-1 indicates that Blaylock will be found on page 8 column one.

Since all names appear in alphabetic order in the Directory of Genealogists and the Genealogists' Exchange, pages 67 to 204 inclusive, they do not appear in this index.

The various issues of Volumn Fifteen (1961) contain the following pages. March 1 to 32; June 33 to 64; September 65 to 220; December 221 to 252.

The Genealogical Helper

is read by more genealogists than any other genealogical magazine. Advertise your wants on your research problems and get the help of thousands of people who may have the answer you need.

Every day more subscribers are added to the long list of readers. Send now for information on the many ways you can place your problem so you can let the genealogical world know of your wants. The cost is extremely low when you compare the tremendous possibilities of getting the answer to your problem.

WHY REGISTER YOUR FAMILY ORGANIZATION?

You are undoubtedly organized to promote goodwill and fellowship between members of your family -- be it large or small. You may also be interested in other projects such as gathering genealogy or preserving the memory of your forebearers in numerous ways. Your strength is enhanced and broadened with each new member you bring into your group.

Many of your members may have moved and you have lost track of them. If your family is a large one with many branches it is possible you know nothing at all about hundreds of relatives who should be one with you.

THE GENEALOGICAL HELPER offers a way that has proven extremely helpful in finding these unknown and lost relatives. Family registrations are listed in each March issue of this widley known magazine. These go into the hands of thousands of genealogists all over the country, and with this common interest, correspondence is started and the lost brought back to the fold. Many times genealogical lines are extended and clarified through the collective efforts of all branches.

A Letter To Caleb Forbes Is Written

By Mrs. Ruth Hanneman
25836 Hoffmeyer
Roseville, Michigan

According to the family bible, now in the hands of your great grand daughter, Courtney, your father was William Forbes and your mother was called Thamar. You were born on Monday May 19, 1783. We do not know as yet, the place of your birth, it may have been Camden or Currituck County, North Carolina. We believe the family were Americans for several generations. Could the first ancestor from Scotland have been John Forbes who died at Sandwich, Mass in 1661? John had five sons and a daughter whose names were: John, Decon Edward, Caleb, William, Joshua and Elizabeth. Was one of these your ancestor?

We find William Forbes and wife Tamar in Camden County, North Carolina, Deed Book B in 1780 and Deed Book D in 1789. In the 1790 Census it lists William Forbes and four male children under sixteen, two females and one slave. Were your brothers William, Ezekiel, Isaac, Ichabod and Morgan who was born after 1790?

In 1815 and 1827 we believe you are listed in the abstracts of Currituck County North Carolina Wills.

You met Mary, daughter of Josiah and Mary Curling (Kurlin, Curlin), who was born September 19, 1782. When you were twenty-five and Mary twenty-six, you were married on a Sunday, the 18th of January 1808.

The first child of this marriage you called William after your father. William was born November 23, 1809, and Courtney (which seems to be a name quite widely used by the Forbes) was born September 25, 1811. Frances was born six years later, September 10, 1817. Peter followed and was born July 12, 1819. Another six years passed before the birth of Caleb Gregory on July 17, 1825.

The early Bible entries seem to stop, and then resumed after your daughter Courtney's marriage.

Caleb, was it in these years between the birth of your son Caleb Gregory in 1825 and your restless feelings to go west in 1830 that you lost your wife, Mary Curling, and also your son, Caleb Gregory?

In the year 1830 you were not satisfied to stay in North Carolina, and were looking for a new home in the midwest. You made a journey by horseback west to Illinois. Finding a spot in Marshall County, Illinois, you returned to North Carolina for your family and household belongings. The County History of Marshall County tells us that you left Albemarle Sound, North Carolina, in April 1831 with your wife, Mary Elizabeth Lindsey and four children. Your party included the Sawyer family and several others. After many trials and hardships through Indian Country you arrived September 2, 1831 a distance of over 100 miles. You set to work to build a crude cabin among the elms. Do you know that a hugh depression in the ground remains today to mark the cellar you dug under that first cabin? Hugh elms are still on that land even today after 129 years. I wish you were here to tell me if they are the very ones that shaded your cabin when you settled on that spot. Later, Caleb, you erected a roomy house of hewed logs and when the Black Hawk Indian Wars broke out you used the house as a fort for the protection of your family and the Sawyer family

Your daughter, Courtney, was married in 1832 to Josiah Martin, son of Benjah & Abigail Martin. It was said to be the first marriage in the county. I imagine there was some feasting and quite a merry time.

Your sons, William and Peter, married the Buckingham sisters, daughters of Isaac and Jane Jones Buckingham of Woodford County, Illinois formerly of Fayette and Green Counties, Pennsylvania. William married Hannah Buckingham in 1834 and had six children, who were: Mary born 1835, Sarah 1837, Ellen 1839, Amanda 1840, Isaac 1841 and Courtney 1843, all born in Illinois.

Your son, Peter, (who is best known to me because he was my great grandfather) married Sarah Buckingham in 1841. It was said Peter was a natural mathemetician. He was very successful and at his death held 2080 acres and was worth $87,000. He died the night Lincoln was inaugurated. It is said he lost a bet on the election and suffered a heart attack. Peter and Sarah had eight children, all born in Hopewell Township, Marshall County, Illinois. Mary Elizabeth born May 29, 1842 died October 15, 1881, married 1886 John Kennedy; William born October 20, died April 2, 1932, married Laura Mayes; Ruth born February 18, 1845 died March 9, 1923, married Irving Broaddus, a daughter born 1846, but did not live. Isaac Morgan born September 19, 1847, died February 27, 1927, married Fannie Thorp; Caleb born, March 3, 1849, died August 13, 1889, Married Nellie Green; James C. born November 29, 1850; Sarah Eleanor, born April 21, 1853, died June 6, 1940, married 1872 Samuel Croft.

In early November of 1842 your son William died at the age of 33 years. We do not know the cause. Now it became necessary for the family to have a cemetery plot. You selected a shady spot setting back from the road across from your first cabin. Ever since it has been called The Forbes Cemetery. In it we find a few other names besides that of Forbes. Some of the markers show the following names: Broaddus, Curran, Feazel, Held, Kennedy, Martin, Porter and Thorpe. Several of the old stones have toppled over and have been in the mud so long it is impossible to decipher the inscriptions. One wooden marker. Who is buried under wooden marker? That field stone marker, I wonder if you were there when they buried one of your family members under the field stone marker? The marker for your grave says, Died September 21, 1864. You were eighty-one years old. Your wife Mary Elizabeth died only nine months later, June 6, 1865. Your daughter, Courtney Forbes Martin, died July 5, 1886.

Your daughter, Frances, (Fannie) married Jordon Sawyer in 1835, but we know little about her.

In the census of 1850, Marshall County Illinois, you are listed as a farmer with a real estate valuation of $3,000. George Martin, age 13 and Ruhamma Martin, aged five, lived with you. Close by your grave is that of your son, Peter, and his family, and Hannah, wife of William as head of her family.

Did your father ever tell you he served in the Revolutionary War? We can find no record of such service.

We do find that you traveled 140 miles to join Capt. Garlington's Co. as a private in the infantry, Camden County, N. C. Militia in the War of 1812.

There are so many, many questions I would ask you if you were here.

I will make every effort to gather the records of your family.

We Retraced A Migration

Samuel and Margaret Tincher of "215 acres on head of Great Calfpasture", an acreage varying from 1 1/2¢ to 11¢ per acre!

Perhaps B. F. Kegley's deduction of the origin of Tinkling Springs is true, in that he suggests this creek became Tinker's Creek .. "from an early family on the Calfpasture, by the name of Tencher". And early real estate transactions were contracted by William and Francis Tincher, who bought, and sold, during the time of the Wars. Then down the Wilderness Road into Kentucky, along with the Gays, Kincaids, Campbells, Hamiltons and Lockridges, to name a few ... and the purchase of more land. Then into still another new frontier ... Indiana!

After the Civil War, my own grandfather the second George Tincher, went by covered wagon to Kansas, and helped build the state capital as a monument to that new 1861 State. Now I am building for a third George, my father, and his ancestors, another monument. A memorial to honor all of them. A story, perhaps not unlike Wagon Train ... a part of history that many, many pioneers began, and some ended, in that long forgotten cemetery, in that small town in Indiana.

No story would be complete without the wonderful allied families and the part they played. A second Samuel Tincher and his bride Priscilla Mann, married in 1789 in Alderson, West Virginia, while his brother Robert took a bride, Nancy Dickinson, a year before; Margaret Tincher and an early "in-law" Simon Cooper, or another Margaret and her husband of 1780, William O'Hara, Mary Tincher, bride of Samuel Kincaid ... and Mary Ann Tincher and her Kincaid, William by name; Elizabeth and her Robert Hews (Huse), and a second Elizabeth, Rollins - Rowlands, who married Samuel Tincher. They all belong to me these early citizens of Virginia.

The frontiers of Kentucky gave us Polly Barker, as a wife to Hamilton Tincher, Esther McGuire belonged to George Tincher, and Francis and Edith (Lackey) Tincher migrated to Indiana. The rolling hills of Indiana soon became dotted with their cabins, and the Barnes, Dawson, Gentry, Blevin families became new Tinchers. Now my story becomes a composite picture of many states and many pioneer families. But all will tell history, even now still partially hidden.

With the help of these allied families, and my continual searching in Libraries and with letters from other readers of The Helper, I, too, will be able to add to the family histories of early America, the name of strong, energetic and freedom loving Ulster folks, by the name of TINCHER.

Mr. or Mrs?

"I suppose their have always been persons who because of their infatuation with a certain name gave it to their child regardless of sex or custom. There are only a few with such names now, but they do make it difficult for us to write to. Would you kindly try to persuade them that most of the plain people would like to know exactly how to address them?

"It seems to me that people who work with names as much as do the genealogical researchers, amateur or professional, would get in the habit of using the right titles, etc.

Genealogists Exchange?

"Early last fall I purchased a copy of THE HELPER," writes a gentleman from San Bernardino county, California. "Thus far I have written 28 letters to persons who had written to the Question Box and who offered to exchange information. To date I have received only one answer. That's .35%. That's a hair-breadth more than one third of one per cent. What a batting average!

"It seems that their 'exchange' idea is only a one-way proposition. It is a 'give-me' scheme. They get what they want and then forget all about the promise they had made. Perhaps their obligation was swept away with a shrug of the shoulder.

"If that is their idea, THE GENEALOGICAL HELPER is useless as an exchange medium. To me it is just plain dishonesty on the part of the 'promising' advertiser.

"I am not going to forget these 27 dishonest individuals. I have their names and addresses in my notebook. Never will I answer any request of their. As I get acquainted with the rest of the HELPER readers, I may even warn them against the dishonest ones."
